

The Londoner moves opening to late 2020.

For several weeks we have been closely monitoring the COVID-19 outbreak and working with our key stakeholders to fully understand the impact on the opening of The Londoner in Leicester Square.

After carefully considering all of the recommendations and proactive measures in line with the UK Government and World Health Organisation, we have come to the conclusion that the responsible course of action would be to postpone our June launch until late 2020.

This is an unprecedented time for all, and we are deeply disappointed that we have had to make this decision after all of the hard work and dedication from our partners to date. However, we know that this is absolutely the right thing to do to protect the safety and wellbeing of our guests and employees. Work will continue on site as expected and our teams will advance the development according to original timelines.

This is not the course of action we hoped to take, however we look forward to unveiling this hotel that we are so proud of later this year.
