“Perfect Rustic Elegance & Private Site for a Corporate Retreat”

Having led hundreds of corporate retreat groups over more than 25 years, I have developed demanding standards for facilities used for this purpose. The Lodges at Gettysburg is easily among the very best I have used. The quality of the rooms, the variety of activities offered, the magnificence of the views, and the convenience of the location make the Lodges a preferred site for our future groups to the Gettysburg area. The warmth of the staff and eagerness to please and satisfy every one of my client’s whims was a special bonus.

“Fantastic treatment and accommodations”

I took a team of 26 employees for a training event and we stayed at this Hotel. The rooms were very large and included a comfortable king size bed, a kitchen and a bathroom. Each room has it's own back porch and because this hotel sits on a hill I had a view of the battlefield from my back door. I could see where there were re-enactment tents being set up on the battlefield, very cool. I also thought the entire staff was not only friendly but went out of the way to accommodate any need me or my team had. They all knew our names after a very short period of time. The food was also top notch. We were served real crab cakes and fillets for dinner. The meal presentation was well done and the food was top notch. You could tell the owners went out of their way to find an executive chef. The hotel has free wi-fi throughout, there's a very large pond and they hand out fishing poles at your request. Nighttime was extremely quiet, it really was quite relaxing. I believe this place is easily the nicest place to stay in the Gettysburg area.

“Great place for a corporate retreat ...

We came to the Lodges to take advantage of its quiet but well appointed facilities to hold a 2-day corporate strategic planning retreat. Several lodges sit atop one of the highest ridges in Gettysburg, providing great views of its historic battlefields. The lodges appear to be very rustic-- and blend perfectly into the hills near the Gettysburg Battlefield Park. But don't be fooled --inside is a wide array of modern amenities--very comfortable beds, flat screen TVs, a fully appointed kitchen, ceiling fans, modern bathrooms with all the latest amenities, and furnished with beautiful antique desks, benches, rugs, and bed frames. Our lodge had a back porch with 2 comfortable chairs that we used as we sipped our coffee and took in the scenic view. A fishing pond and a really nice walking trail are part of the amenities onsite, but we didn't have time to take advantage of them. The main building hosts a reception area, a large bar/gathering place, several meeting rooms and a grand hall, suitable for large events and wedding receptions. We were impressed by how friendly the staff was and how they helped to ensure our corporate retreat went well, complete with full technical support and services. The meeting room we used was wired to support our presentations on a big screen and had a great sound system built in. We plan to return again next year, and incorporate a tour of Gettysburg as part of our retreat!
